Thank you for your support of the Ogle Center and the Arts in Southern Indiana. The State of Indiana offers a special tax incentive for the support of higher education. Indiana offers a direct credit against the amount owed for Indiana gross income tax. The credit amount may equal up to 50% of an individual's contribution to Indiana University Southeast. On a single return the maximum credit would be $100 (for a $200 donation), and on a joint return, the maximum would be $200 (for a $400 donation). For further information call 812-941-2544.
